

366 FW Fact Sheet

Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)

Location: Patient Administration Office, 366th Medical Group, Mountain Home AFB

Hours of Operation: 0730-1600 Monday- Friday

Phone: Special Needs / FMRC Coordinator: 828-7477

DSN: 728

Address: 90 Hope Dr., Bldg 6000, Mountain Home AFB, Idaho 83648

Program Benefits

- Helps Active Duty members and their families from being sent to a location with limited or no support for their medical or educational needs.
- Saves the Air Force from having to PCS families from one base to another looking for the appropriate care the member needs.

Helpful Websites:

- Air Force Special Needs website: <https://www.afspecialneeds.af.mil>
- Military HomeFront; Special Needs/EFMP: <http://www.militaryhomefront.dod.mil>
- STOMP: <http://www.stompproject.org/>

Program Information

- Governed by AFI 40-701
- Mandatory Enrollment for Those who Qualify
 - Family Member requiring specialized medical care more than once annually
 - Family Member with Asthma requiring daily/regular use of medications
 - Family Member with Asthma has been hospitalized or seen in the ER within past year.
 - Family Member with cancer diagnosis within last 5 years
 - Family Member with Long-term (more than 6 months) chronic and/or recurring mental health condition
 - Special Education services:
 - Early intervention services, i.e., Individualized Education Plan, speech therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy, etc.
 - Medical equipment needs, i.e., wheelchair, walker, hearing aids etc.
- Family Member Relocation Clearances/Medical Clearances for Families PCSing
 - Mandatory for all families PCSing OCONUS/ Appt's made 4 months in advance only
 - Mandatory for all Special Needs family members PCSing CONUS

- Documents Needed for Enrollment or Family Member Clearance
 - FMRC Cover Sheet
 - FMRC Checklist Provides instructions for each form
 - AF 1466 Request for Family Members Medical and Education
 - Clearance for Travel
 - AF 1466DO Dental Health Summary
 - DD 2792 EFM Medical Summary
 - DD 2792-1 EFM Special Education/Early Intervention Summary